

Further obstruction by court staff and lawyers to assist me at the courthouse at 47 Sheppard Ave. E. in Toronto on December 1, 2014

28. On Monday December 1, 2014, I took an affidavit for myself to the courthouse at 47 Sheppard Ave. to have it sworn. I was told that court staff at the courthouse provide this services free of charge for the public. I took my personal identification as required. I first went to the Legal Aid Office on the third floor. I put my name on the waiting list and waited for my name to be called. Eventually I was called in to see a lawyer by the name of Harold Stein.
29. Mr. Stein took my affidavit and read it over. He then turned to me and told me that he could not sign my affidavit as it was too long. Clearly he was outright lying and making up a dumb excuse because the affidavit from the CAS worker was over 100 pages in my court matter and my affidavit was only 30 pages long. I believe he did not want to witness my affidavit because I told about all the bad things that the CAS had done to me and my father. He gave me back my affidavit and I left his office.
30. Next I went to the front counter on the first floor of the court. I spoke to one of the court clerks and asked her for help to get it signed. She looked at my affidavit and read it over. She told me that she could not help but told me to go to see Harold Stein's supervisor who was a lady by the name of Amy.
31. I went up the elevator to Amy's office. I knocked on the door and Amy asked me to enter. I asked her if she was Harold Stein's supervisor and she said she was. I told her that I wanted an affidavit signed and that Harold would not sign it. She took my affidavit and read it over. After she read my affidavit she told me that my affidavit is too long and that Legal Aid could not provide services to have it witnessed. Amy handed my affidavit back and then I left. She did not refer me to anyone who could help.
32. At this point I really felt let down by the people at the court. I left the courthouse and walked over to Sheppard Ave. and crossed over to the north side of the street. I saw a sign on a building advertising lawyers so I walked into the building and spoke to a receptionist. I was referred to room 12 on the ninth floor where I met a lawyer by the name of Timothy Leahy. I went into his office and he read it over. Mr. Leahy politely offered his services and witnessed my signature for me.

Justice was denied me at 47 Sheppard Ave. E.

33. I went to the courthouse at 47 Sheppard Ave. E. to seek justice and to be able to have my voice heard. I was expecting the people at the courthouse to help me but instead I was turned away. As a young Canadian I am left with the impression that nobody at the courthouse is truly interested in helping children or seeing that justice is serviced.
34. I did some further research on the Internet about the court at 47 Sheppard Ave. E. and came across a photo of someone dressed in a kangaroo costume standing in front of the courthouse with a sign reading, "Corrupt Kangaroo Court". Clearly I am not the only one who feels that the court at 47 Sheppard Ave. E. is not giving justice to the citizens. Based on my experience that day, "Kangaroo Court" would be an accurate description.
